

PX-1

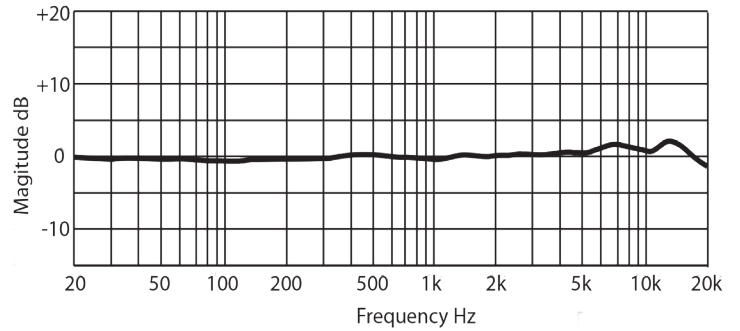

Large Diaphragm Cardioid Condenser Microphone

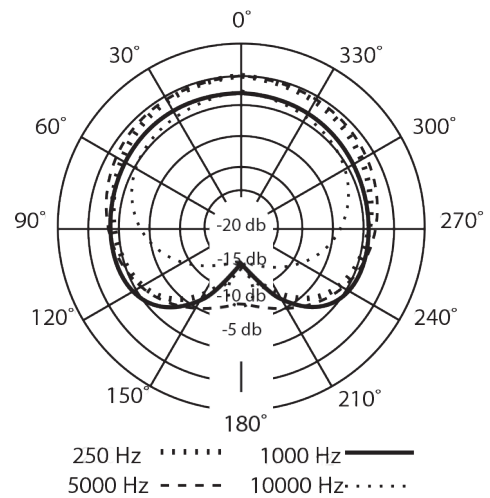

Key Features

- True large-diaphragm condenser microphone
- Cardioid polar pattern
- Great choice for recording vocals, guitar, podcasts, and more
- Side address
- 1-inch (25 mm), gold-sputtered capsule
- Exceptional clarity throughout its frequency response range
- Rugged construction
- Top-quality performance specifications
- Hard mount and carrying case included

Frequency response

Polar pattern

Capture every detail, every time

Designed for musicians and performers who demand outstanding audio quality, the PreSonus PX-1 cardioid condenser microphone is an ideal solution for recording vocals, guitar, podcasts, and much more. A true large-diaphragm condenser microphone, the PX-1 features a 25mm, gold-sputtered capsule designed to provide exceptional clarity throughout its frequency response range. Rugged construction and top-quality performance specifications make the PX-1 large diaphragm microphone an excellent addition for any home recording or streaming studio.

Technical specifications

Capsule Type	25mm, gold sputtered 6 micron Mylar, large-diaphragm condenser
Preamp Type	Class A FET
Sensitivity	25 mV/Pa
Frequency Response	20 Hz to 18 kHz
Polar Pattern	Cardioid
Equivalent Noise Level	18 dB SPL A-wtd
Maximum SPL	135 dB
Total Load Impedance	>1 kΩ
Output Impedance	200Ω
Powered By	48V Phantom Power